

Monday Memo

Inspire. Empower. Achieve.

Congratulations- to our volleyball and football teams for their outstanding performances during last week's competitions!

Dinner- dinner will be served daily at PPMS from 4:00-5:00.

Spirit Week- September 16-20. Dress up days will be announced soon. Friday, September 20 will be the PPMS Spirit Week Dance during school hours.

BOOK FAIR! - Our fall Scholastic book fair will be September 6th - 13th. We will be open daily and also during the PPMS Open House the evening of September 9, 2019.

SPOTLIGHT! Digital Citizenship- To address the digital citizenship standards, all PPMS students will participate in advisory classes twice a month. Advisory teachers will lead lessons on digital citizenship as well as provide adult advocacy measures like goal-setting, and academic and attendance monitoring. Click here for more information.

Grading Practices at PPMS- At PPMS, we believe the primary purpose for grading is to communicate with students and parents about student academic performance, college and career readiness, and student responsibility. An academic grade should reflect the teacher's most objective assessment of the student's academic achievement. Click here for more information.
